Scheme of Delegation

BLANK

1. Scope of the policy

1.1 With a few statutory exceptions, only the Full Council is able to make decisions on behalf of the corporate body, unless it makes explicit provision to delegate powers to either a committee or officer (or in some cases, another authority). These delegated powers are often enshrined in the Council's key governance documents – its Standing Orders, Financial Regulations, and committee terms of reference – as well as other policies. The purpose of the Scheme of Delegation is to consolidate these delegated powers into one document:

- providing a single point of reference to inform decision-making;
- ensuring that there is no conflict between different governance documents;
- clarifying lines of accountability;
- and confirming where statutory responsibilities sit.

2. What and who is covered by the policy

2.1 The policy comprehensively covers all aspects of the Council decision-making process, and it is therefore intended as a key reference document for all staff and councillors, particularly: the Mayor and committee chairs; town clerk; deputy town clerk and the finance officer.

2.2 It should also be publicly available and published online to provide those members of the community attending Council meetings with a guide to how the Council makes decisions.

3. Legal framework

3.1 A Scheme of Delegation is considered best practice by the National Association of Local Councils, and is a requirement for Council seeking Quality Award status.

3.2 The Council's statutory power to delegate its functions is laid down in Local Government Act (LGA) 1972 s101. This states that power can be delegated to a committee, sub-committee, or officer of the authority, or to another authority.

3.3 By virtue of the absence of any provision in s101, town and parish councils cannot be delegated to an individual councillor. However, when acting as the chair of a meeting, a councillor has ex officio powers to regulate conduct in the meeting, as discussed below.

3.4 Where powers are delegated to a committee, the primary source of best practice on how they are delegated and exercised is Knowles on Local Authority Meetings (McCourt, 8th Edn, 2016), as discussed below.

4. Full Council

4.1 The following matters are reserved to the Council for decision, notwithstanding that the appropriate committee(s) may make recommendations for the Council's consideration:

- f) No councillor may issue an instruction to an officer, but may highlight any issue that they believe requires the attention of the Council. Any issue regarding staff performance may only be raised with the Town Clerk or through the appropriate committee.

9. Committees

- 9.1 Under the Local Government Act 1972 s101, the Council may appoint committees to undertake any of its functions not described in item 1.1 above.
- 9.2 Best practice on the constitution of committees states that:
- “there should be no more standing committees than are necessary, the membership of the committees should be small, their terms of reference should be clearly specified, and their relationship to the rest of the decision-making structure clearly defined. Each committee should be concerned with matters that can only be dealt with at member level, i.e. there should ordinarily be no involvement in matters of day-to-day administration and operation business that is properly the responsibility of officers.” (McCourt, 2016, p.211)
- 9.3 A committee may not comprise fewer than three voting members (McCourt, 2016, p.226).
- 9.4 Where any member is deemed an ex officio member of any committee, they are a full member of that committee, unless expressly stated otherwise (McCourt, p.224).
- 9.5 Any committee established for the controlling of the Council’s finances, must be solely comprised of councillors (Local Government Act 1972, s.102).
- 9.6 On the terms of reference:
- “[they] should cover the whole of the council’s area of operations, but should be so drawn that one set of terms does not overlap another... most authorities provide for the terms of reference of an appropriate committee to include responsibility for ‘any matter not delegate to... any other... committee.’” (McCourt, 2016, p.227)
- 9.7 LGA 1972 s.101(2) states that unless otherwise stated, where a power has been delegated to a committee, that committee can arrange for a sub-committee or officer to discharge those powers.
- 9.8 The terms of reference must also not contradict any provision made in the Council’s Standing Orders or Financial Regulations, which shall take precedence where there is any conflict.
- 9.10 ‘Standing committees’ is a term used to simply to refer to committees set up ‘year after year’ (McCourt, 2016, p.212) and they have no statutory or special position of authority.
- 9.11 On the following pages are the terms of reference for each of the Council’s four standing committees: Finance Strategy and Management; Planning; Recreation and Amenities; and Town and Community.
- 9.12 There is concern that where contentious issues are raised, there should be a mechanism for these to be referred to the Full Council. Therefore, a clause has been added to all committee terms of reference, that where an item is delegated to the committee, but a resolution is not passed by at least a two-thirds majority, the item is referred to the Full Council with a recommendation agreed upon by a simple majority.
